FELIKS STAMM

Feliks Stamm is a historical figure, almost a cult figure in the world of sport. Creator of the Polish school of boxing. A coach whose authority and achievements were admired by the whole world, and by numerous pupils simply called "Papa". To commemorate the great trainer and educator of generations of boxers, the Polish Boxing Association decided to establish an international tournament named after him. The first in the series took place in November 1977. Today it is one of the most important Olympic boxing events, as evidenced not only by the interest of clubs from around the world in participating in it, but also by the fact that this event has been permanently included in the calendar of the World Boxing Federation IBA

PUŁTUSK

Pułtusk is a beautiful historical city distant from Warsaw by 1 hour drive. Located on the Narew River, it boasts the longest market square in Europe. It has many unique monuments attracting crowds of tourists. Its beauty was also appreciated by filmmakers - the city was an inspiration for many directors who created their film sets here.
